Family Devotions

Hopefully your preteen is beginning to develop a habit of personal devotions. But there are still plenty of times when your input is needed—and valued. Encourage your child to read the daily Scriptures. Read the verses yourself. Use the questions to help your preteen understand the verses and apply them to life. Discover and learn from God’s Word—together!

○ SUNDAY—Read Acts 2:42-47.

The early believers regularly listened to the apostles’ teachings, shared together, took the Lord’s Supper, and prayed. Which of these things are parts of your congregation’s worship and fellowship?

○ MONDAY—Read Romans 12:1, 2.

What action of the mind is involved in offering yourself as a living sacrifice to God? (Read verse 2 again.) What might keep you from worshipping God completely?

○ TUESDAY—Read 1 Chronicles 16:23-29.

The word ascribe (verse 28) comes from a Latin word meaning “to write.” If you were asked to write a worship poem to God, what would you write?

○ WEDNESDAY—Read Revelation 4:9-11.

Why does the fact that God is our creator make Him worthy of worship? For which of God’s creations are you most thankful?

○ THURSDAY—Read Colossians 3:15-17.

What different activities of the church are mentioned in these verses? Why should everything we say and do be done in the name of Jesus and with thanks to God?

○ FRIDAY—Read 1 Timothy 4:11-16.

In what areas of his life was Timothy to set an example? To what was Timothy to be devoted? In what ways can you set an example?

○ SATURDAY—Read Hebrews 13:15-17.

What ways of serving and obeying God are mentioned in these verses? Do you need to work harder on any of these?
