Family Devotions

Hopefully your preteen is beginning to develop a habit of personal devotions. But there are still plenty of times when your input is needed—and valued. Encourage your child to read the daily Scriptures. Read the verses yourself. Use the questions to help your preteen understand the verses and apply them to life. Discover and learn from God’s Word—together!

- SUNDAY—Read John 9:1-5.
What question did the apostles ask about the man who was born blind? How do you think Jesus’ response changed the way they looked at the man?
- MONDAY—Read John 9:6-12.
How did Jesus heal the man who was blind? What would you have thought if you had been one of the man’s neighbors or a person who had seen the man before he was healed?
- TUESDAY—Read John 9:26-33.
In what ways did the Pharisees try to make Jesus look bad? What did the man who had been blind say in response? Have you ever had to take a stand for Jesus?
- WEDNESDAY—Read Acts 3:1-10.
What did Peter give to the man who could not walk? What could our family give in the name of Jesus to someone who is in need?
- THURSDAY—Read Acts 4:5-12.
Who does Peter recognize as the only source of true power and salvation? How is God’s power at work in our family?
- FRIDAY—Read Ephesians 3:14-21.
What did Paul pray for the Ephesians? What can we learn from these verses about praying for others and ourselves?
- SATURDAY—Read 2 Corinthians 12:7-10.
What can we learn from these verses about God’s help in enduring ongoing problems? What should be our attitude toward such problems?
