

Lesson 7 / October 19, 2025

Too Important

By RLD Editorial Team

for use as
STEP 1 Lesson 7*Focus:

An idol is anything more important to us than God.

Lesson 7Bible Basis:

Exodus 19:16-25;
20:22-23; 32:1-35

Lesson 7Memory Verse:

“Worship the Lord your God and serve Him only.”
— Luke 4:8

In order to introduce the lesson topic, students will watch a humorous video about a cat and a chicken as they explore priorities.

Materials:

- Internet access

We all have things in our lives that are important to us. Those things may be particular possessions or activities we value, or even something you can't see or touch like friendships.

- Name some things you value very much. (Accept all reasonable answers. Emphasize that important things may not be physical possessions.)
- Have you ever lost something that you value? How did it make you feel? (Encourage students to briefly share their experiences.)
- Have you ever been in a situation where you would have done anything to get or keep something important to you? (Be prepared to share your own examples, e.g., giving up one important thing in order to retain another.)

If there's something we really, really want, we will go to great efforts to get (or keep) it. We will keep going after something to get what we want. In this video, a cat and a chicken are battling it out...let's see what happens.

Play the short video for the students [1:17]:

CAT vs CHICKEN 🐱🔥 EPIC Food Fight! Who Will Win! 🏆

<https://www.youtube.com/shorts/n5YbgEgL3-c>

- Who do you think wanted the food more—the cat or the chicken? (Answers may vary; the cat was determined to defend its food, but the chicken was determined to ignore the cat and keep eating.)
- Have you ever wanted something as badly as this cat and chicken wanted the cat food? (Answers may vary.)

➤ Trickier question: have you ever wanted something so much that you neglected more important things to get it? (Students may be hesitant to share; providing your own examples can help stimulate discussion.)

There's nothing wrong with wanting something, and there's certainly nothing wrong with working for what you want. But if something you want becomes so important to you that you lose sight of what really matters, it can be a real problem. Let's find out more.

(Continue on to Steps 2 and 3 in your teacher's guide; your Step 4 appears below.)

Too Important

for use as
STEP 4 Lesson 7*Focus:

An idol is anything more important to us than God.

Lesson 7Bible Basis:

Exodus 19:16-25;
20:22-23; 32:1-35

Lesson 7Memory Verse:

“Worship the Lord your God and serve Him only.”
— Luke 4:8

Materials:

- “Broken Commandments” printouts on cardstock (1 per student; template found at the end of this document)
- Scissors
- Pens/pencils
- Glue or tape
- Cardboard or additional cardstock (1 per student)

Note: before class, print copies of the “Broken Commandments” template (found at the end of this document) on cardstock; print enough for each student with a few spares. (If your class is meeting online, email the template for families to print ahead of time. Invite students to bring printouts and supplies with them to class.)

As students finish up their Step 3 activities, bring their attention back to the focus of the lesson. Today we learned about the idolatry committed by the Israelites, and how God responded.

- What idol did the Israelites make? (A golden calf.)
- How did God respond to the Israelites’ idolatry? (God judged them.)
- What did Moses do with the tablets of the law? (He broke them.)

None of us have golden calves at home that we worship, but we all have a tendency to let things come between us and God. There are things in our lives that we value too much, and so we put those ahead of what we really ought to do.

- Have you ever done something you knew displeased God because it was too important to you? Will anyone share about that? (Encourage students to discuss their experiences by starting out with an experience of your own.)

We all have things in our lives that we sometimes allow to come first, when God should be the one who comes first. It doesn't mean those things are bad, but it means we have to be extra careful not to let that particular thing get in the way of our relationship with God and with others.

Distribute supplies (or invite students to have them ready at home). When we place something ahead of God, we break God's commandments and shatter our relationship with Him. It can be tough to put it back together, but it's important! The handout you have now contains the shattered pieces of one of God's commandments. Cut out the pieces and glue them together on your sheet of cardboard.

A completed version of the reassembled "tablet" will look like this:

As students start to complete their project, they will see that the broken tablet contains a blank. God told the Israelites, "You shall put no other gods before me." In this blank, I want you to write something in your life that you might be tempted to put ahead of God. It might be a favorite activity that you spend too much time on or a friendship you know isn't godly. You don't have to share it with anyone else if you don't want to.

After the students have written, direct them to cut out the cardboard "tablet" to take home. Over the next week, use this as a reminder of the dangers of putting anything ahead of your relationship with God. Ask the Lord to help you keep this "idol" in its proper place.

Close in prayer.

(We are not affiliated with and do not endorse any website or any other media listed on these pages. At the time of writing, we carefully review the referenced material and non-referenced web page content. However, due to the nature of the Internet, non-cited content on the website [including pop-ups, links, and ads] changes frequently and is beyond our control. Please review carefully before showing links in the classroom.)

