Depend on God

for use as
STEP 1 Lesson 4*Focus:

We can depend on God in every situation.

Lesson 4*Bible Basis:

Matthew 2:13-23

Lesson 4*Memory Verse:

What, then, shall we say in response to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us?
—Romans 8:31

Students will watch a video clip about an 11-year-old boy rescued from drowning by a local teenager as they consider depending on someone in every situation.

Materials:

- Internet access

➤ Have you ever been in a situation where you had to depend on someone else to help you? Tell us about it. (Answers will vary. Students may talk about a scary situation where they had to depend on a parent, sibling, or friend; they may relate something someone else does for them on a regular basis like drive them to school. Have a variety of situations from your own life to give as examples to get discussion going and broaden it as needed.)

➤ How does it feel to depend on another person? (Students may talk about finding it hard to trust, feeling safe or confident, wishing they could do it alone, etc. Others may feel thankful they aren't responsible to accomplish something they can't do alone.)

When we depend on someone, we trust or rely on that person. Sometimes we must depend on another person to get through a dangerous or unsafe situation.

Gauge responded immediately by helping the boy's mom look for her son, jumping in to rescue him from under the dock, getting him out of the water, and beginning chest compressions until medical help could arrive.

The boy and his mother depended on Gauge to help find the boy and save him from drowning. Without his quick action, this situation could have been deadly for the boy. There was no way he could get back to the surface on his own because he could not swim and had passed out.

At times we must depend on other people to help us in a dangerous situation. But there is Someone whom we can depend on in every situation. Let's check it out.

If your class is meeting online, invite students to bring supplies with them to class.

God provided a way for Joseph, Mary, and Jesus to escape from danger. We can depend on God in every situation, too. He is loving and powerful, and nothing is impossible for Him!

Ask a volunteer to read today's memory verse (Romans 8:31). When we depend on our powerful God, nothing can stand against us. The first step of depending on God is to learn more about His plan of salvation through Jesus. Remind your preteens that you would love to talk with them after class if they have questions. Help in sharing the gospel with this age group can be found in your teacher's guide.

Let's think about a few situations in our own lives where we can depend on God.

Distribute supplies (or invite students to have them ready at home). Have children draw a picture of a rope across the length of their papers. Option: glue actual twine across the page. Along the rope, they can write various things they can depend on God for. Examples might include: Salvation from my sin, help at school, wisdom with friends, family relationships, loneliness, or worry.

If you have time, you may want to brainstorm a list together of additional situations in which children can depend on God; write the answers on a whiteboard.

We can depend on God in every situation. The rope on the page reminds us of a rescue line. No matter how impossible or hopeless a situation may seem, God has the ability to rescue us when we depend on Him. Some of you may be feeling worried about something you are going through at home or at school. God knows all the details and is working behind the scenes for your good (Romans 8:28). All you have to do is trust Him.

Give students a few moments to write their answers along the rope. Encourage them to write the memory verse below the rope. Hang this paper at home or someplace to remind you that you can trust God in all circumstances. He knows the best way through any challenges you may be experiencing, and He is always with you. As you depend on Him, He will help you and provide solutions you could never come up with on your own.

Close in prayer.
