Family Devotions

Hopefully your preteen is beginning to develop a habit of personal devotions. But there are still plenty of times when your input is needed—and valued. Encourage your child to read the daily Scriptures. Read the verses yourself. Use the questions to help your preteen understand the verses and apply them to life. Discover and learn from God’s Word—together!

- SUNDAY—Read Exodus 20:12.
What promise is included with the command given in this verse? How can we show honor to parents or guardians today?
- MONDAY—Read Leviticus 20:9.
What was the Old Testament penalty for cursing one’s parents? What might be the consequences of disobeying and disrespecting parents today?
- TUESDAY—Read Proverbs 1:8, 9.
How might we be better people because we have followed our parents’ teachings? How can we show parents or guardians that we value their instruction?
- WEDNESDAY—Read Proverbs 10:1.
When have you shown that you are a wise son or daughter? How did your wisdom bring joy to a parent?
- THURSDAY—Read Proverbs 15:5.
What kind of people reject the discipline of parents? What might happen if we ignore something our parents have taught us?

- FRIDAY—Read Proverbs 17:6.
How can grandchildren be “a crown” to their grandparents? In what ways are you proud of your parents? How can you make them proud of you?
- SATURDAY—Read Ephesians 6:1-3.
What does the Lord promise to those who obey their parents? How do you feel when you see your friends disobeying their parents? How do you think God feels?
