Family Devotions

Hopefully your preteen is beginning to develop a habit of personal devotions. But there are still plenty of times when your input is needed—and valued. Encourage your child to read the daily Scriptures. Read the verses yourself. Use the questions to help your preteen understand the verses and apply them to life. Discover and learn from God’s Word—together!

- SUNDAY—Read Genesis 39:2, 20, 21.
What comfort did Joseph have in spite of his hard circumstances? How can we remember that God is with us when we go through bad times?
- MONDAY—Read Joshua 1:6-9.
What promise did God give to Joshua after the death of Moses? What did God tell Joshua to do? How can reading God’s Word help us remember that God is with us when we feel alone?
- TUESDAY—Read Psalm 23:1-6.
How is God like a good shepherd? How has God met the needs of our family this week?
- WEDNESDAY—Read Psalm 34:15-18.
How has God comforted someone in our family when he or she felt brokenhearted? How do we know we can depend on God to comfort us during hard times in the future?
- THURSDAY—Read Psalm 139:5-10.
According to this passage, where is God? What do the verses tell us about God’s love and care for us?
- FRIDAY—Read Isaiah 49:14-16.
Will God ever forget us? How does it make you feel to know that God has you engraved on the palms of His hand?
- SATURDAY—Read Psalm 139:1-4.
How well does God know us? How can knowing this help us when we feel lonely or afraid?
