Family Devotions

Hopefully your preteen is beginning to develop a habit of personal devotions. But there are still plenty of times when your input is needed—and valued. Encourage your child to read the daily Scriptures. Read the verses yourself. Use the questions to help your preteen understand the verses and apply them to life. Discover and learn from God’s Word—together!

○ SUNDAY—Read Psalm 13.

Why did David continue to trust in God’s love? How does remembering what God has done for us help us have confidence in God’s care for us?

○ MONDAY—Read Psalm 18:1-6.

When has God given strength to our family? From what has He rescued us? How do we know God hears our prayers?

○ TUESDAY—Read Isaiah 40:28-31.

When was the last time someone in our family felt totally exhausted? What were the circumstances? Does God ever get tired? How can God give us strength that will last?

○ WEDNESDAY—Read Lamentations 3:22-27.

How are God’s gifts to us new each morning? How can we approach each day thankful that God will bless us, even if bad things happen?

○ THURSDAY—Read Matthew 11:28-30.

What invitation does Jesus offer in these verses? Why do we need the rest Jesus offers?

○ FRIDAY—Read Romans 8:28-39.

How should it make us feel to know that God works all things for our good if we love Him and keep His commands? Can anything come between God and us?

○ SATURDAY—Read Hebrews 4:14-16.

How does Jesus know how we are feeling? Why should we confidently approach God in prayer with all our needs?
