Elijah Helps a Widow: 1 Kings 17:7-16

Family Talk

As important as bread was for Elijah, it was not the most important thing he needed. Elijah knew that a person does not live only by eating bread, but also by doing what the Lord says. (See Deuteronomy 8:3.)

As a parent, it is important for you to be in the Word of God. The Scriptures help us know what is right to do, and they give insight into the teachings of God. We must know those teachings because our children also need to know them.

Reading the Bible together and discussing its lessons and stories will help your child grow up making godly choices. Give your child the "bread of life" by regularly opening the Bible and studying its truths.

Bible Memory FUN

Psalm 107:1

Find this verse in a family Bible. Write the verse on an index card and mount it on the dashboard of your car. Create fun ways of saying the verse while traveling together.

This week, help your child remember:

God wants us to obey Him.

Family Fun...

Bread Maker. Find a favorite recipe and bake a loaf of bread. (Banana or pumpkin bread can be easy and fun for children to make.) As you measure and stir the ingredients together, talk about how God gives us what we need to make bread—flour, eggs, sugar, oil. Let your child proudly serve the bread at your next meal. Talk about how God helped Elijah and the woman have bread to eat.

Daily Talks with God

Use these thoughts at mealtimes, bedtimes, or other times when you pray with your child this week.

God's love continues forever!

Dear Lord, help people today who might not have food to eat.

Help me, God, to obey You.
